

Online distance learning course

Understanding Cyberbullying

ADRIENNE KATZ

Complete in your own time!
Equates to 20 hours training. 10 using materials and 10 on assignments. Learn to spot and handle the current most pressing issues in schools, care homes & youth services. Assessment and certificate. Written by author and practitioner Adrienne Katz

Tel. 0208 9794991
admin@youthworksconsulting.co.uk to enquire OR BOOK HERE

Understanding Cyberbullying

Delivered in 10 easy to use modules, each contains a 'Reflection' section which asks you to contribute your responses and ideas. Please keep these to submit at the end of your course. Using PowerPoint and video, with links to longer documents, this is a lively, varied and comprehensive course covering:

Module 1

What do we mean by cyberbullying? Types and forms seen
How is Cyberbullying different from conventional bullying?

Module 2

Recent rapid changes that affect cyberbullying

Module 3

Behaviour, anonymity and crowds online

Module 4

What do young people tell us?

Module 5

How should our advice change?
A new way to approach e-safety teaching
The 3 tier model

Module 6

What is good practice?
Policy and procedure
Ofsted
The Law

Module 7

Real cases

Module 8

Serious Incidents
Types of sexting
Extortion
Blackmail
Child exploitation
Working with other agencies

Module 9

Handling disclosure sensitively
Preparing a class for a discussion
Effective listening
Support for a young person

Module 10

Tools to use, staff training needs
Getting help, Useful websites/ videos
Approaches that work, Further reading

